FRESH SET OF MEN ON TRAIL

All Local Registration Boards Should
Get Official Lists by Thurs-
day or Friday

LAST NUMBER PULLED AT 2:18

Will be September 5 or Later Before
Sorting Out is Accomplished

By WEBB MILLER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
Washington, July 21.—With the location of the missing number today in the great draft lottery, Provost Marshal General Crowder notified Secretary of War Baker that
the first step towards organizing America's army is complete.

The missing number—4,664—was assigned to the 10,004th place in the drawing—the point at which a blank
had been picked from the urn.

Checking up has been completed
and the official lists in printed
and total draft form, will be on their way to all exemption boards before night fall.

It will be September 5, or later,
before actual physical work of sorting out the new army is accomplished. As soon as this is done the government will summons 687,000
men to the colors to compose the new national army and to fill gaps in the regular army and national guard.

Letters of Secretary of War Baker
to senators today indicated that the government does not propose to send either the national guard or
new army abroad before spring;
although original plans contemplated sending them before snow flies.

Washington, July 21.—America's mighty draft closed here today with one number missing. Today a force of clerks went through the dizzy
list of figures on the hunt for this missing numeral.

It was the single hitch of a perfect day which started at 9:30 a. m.
yesterday and ended with the pulling of the last capsule at 2:18 this morning.

Tired men with blistered fingers
and head whirling with figures were ordered off today for three hours
while a fresh crew of accountants
went on the trail of the missing
number.

The missing pellet was a blank.
The 10,004th number was where
it came out.

If the missing number is located
during the day and the checking is complete the local registration
boards should get their official lists
on next Thursday or Friday at the latest.

Then the work of selecting the fit
and the unexempted will proceed.

The first call of men consists of 200 per cent of the actual quota of the particular district or town.

GOETHALS OFFERS TO RESIGN

Washington, July 21.—Gen. Goethals has offered to resign as general manager of the emergency fleet corporation. As a climax to the long drawn argument between himself and Chairman Denman of the shipping board, Goethals wrote a letter to President Wilson suggesting that if it will help matters he will resign.

CONTINUE MASS ATTACKS

London, July 21.—Germans last
night continued their mass attack
against the French line along the Lady's Highway. The Paris official statement reported futile assaults
by enemy in this region, and their repulse with heavy losses to the Teutons.

Men Drafted From County in Order Numbers Are Drawn

The list given below includes the names of 386 Rush county men of military age in the order their red ink serial numbers were drawn at Washington. Today's list varies
somewhat from that printed yesterday because of errors in transmission over the wires. The list is as correct as is possible to make it for the present because it was double checked with lists printed in the Indianapolis Star, Indianapolis
News and Indianapolis Times. The names are given in groups of ten for
the convenience of those who wish
to find the order of their appearance
before the board. The number in black face type is the number of the name just above it. The list following includes the Rush county
men in the first 3,000 of the 10,500
numbers drawn in Washington and
is expected to be far more than enough to provide Rush county's allotment for the first draft:

RUSHVILLE BOY IS SERVING HIS COUNTRY WITH ARMY IN FRANCE

MESS FUND GOAL IS PUT AT $1,500

Committee in Charge Hopes to Raise
This Much by July 29 When Flag
Is Presented

AN EXPLANATION IS MADE

Pointed out That Money Will Remain
In Local Banks Subject to Check
While in U. S.

In order that the people will better understand the proposed mess
fund to be raised for Company B,
and to keep the committee from having to explain it to everyone while collecting the money, an explanation
of the workings of the fund was made today.

First the money is deposited in
local banks to the credit of the company, remaining subject to check as long as the troops are in the United States. In this way the members of the company do not ever handle any of the actual money.

The expenditure of the money is then determined by council. The council is composed of one regimental officer; two company officers
and two enlisted men. This council
also audits the books and a strict accounting of the funds is made at all times.

The use of the fund has been explained. It is to purchase the little things that add pleasure and enjoyment to the soldiers' life that the government does not furnish. For instance, the government does not furnish pickles, butter, fresh vegetables and many other things. The fund is also to furnish the men
amusement such as club equipment,
music, reading matter and books.
No commissioned officer can share
in the fund and it is strictly for the men whose pay is not sufficient to warrant him spending money for these things.

It was pointed out that the members of Company B have given everything by their action in enlisting
and as a result many eligibles
caught in the draft will stay at home. For this reason an appeal is made to every citizen to give to the fund.

The amount of the fund has been placed at $1,500 and it is the hopes of the committee that this fund can be completed by next Sunday, July 29 and along with the flag be presented to the company in the form
of a certificate of deposit for this amount.

The committee in charge of the raising of the fund will meet Monday afternoon at two o'clock in the office of Samuel L. Trabue. All members of the original committee are requested to attend the meeting. At this time it is likely that additional members will be appointed for the other townships.

EXPECTS TO SET A RECORD

W. A. Alexander Threshing Wheat
Today That Averages 35 to Acre

William A. Alexander, west of Rushville, was threshing some wheat
today that was expected to set a new record for the county in recent years. The first 300 bushels averaged thirty-five bushels to the acre.
It tested sixty-one pounds to the bushel and will likely make No. 2
wheat. The first yield reported this year was thirteen bushels to the acre, but it was not thought that indicated anywhere near what the average yield would be.

Direct Word Comes in Letter Today
From Elbert Cox, Son of Mr.
and Mrs. A. J. Cox

WITH CO. K, 18TH INFANTRY

Epistle is Mailed From Paris and Contains Only Barest Facts
to Notify His Parents

HE ENLISTED LAST MARCH

Was Thought to be in France Al-
though Relatives Did Not Know It Until Today

Direct word from one Rushville
boy with General Pershing's forces
in France was received this morning
in the form of a letter to Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cox, 613 West Ninth street, from their son, Elbert Cox.

Young Cox is a member of the Eighteenth Infantry, Company K,
and while his parents believed he was in France, this was the first word received from him that he is actually there. He enlisted in the regular army last March at the Indianapolis recruiting office. Mr. Cox is well known here. He formerly worked at the J. D. Case mill.

The letter was mailed from Paris.
There is no date line and only the barest of facts were permitted to be fold. Young Cox exercised his privilege as a soldier and sent the letter
collected; that is, mailed it in Paris
without a stamp and the postage
was paid in Rushville. The official stamp of the censor is contained in one corner of the envelope and the letter was sent unsealed.

It is as follows.
Paris, France,
18th Infantry, Co. K

Dear Father and Mother:—
I will write you a line to let you know that I am all O. K. and hope you are the same.

Well, father and mother, I am in France now but I cannot tell you anything that is important, but you must write me and tell all the rest
to write, for you can write me anything. Just address the letter, 18th Infantry, Co. K, France and I will get it.

So goodbye,
Your son,
ELBERT COX.

BUGGY HIT BY CAR OCCUPANTS UNHURT

Mrs. George Krammes and Flora
Belle Gilson Have Narrow Es-
cape in Third Street

RIG PUSHED SEVERAL FEET

A buggy in which Mrs. George Krammes, living southwest of the city and Flora Belle Gilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gilson
of this city were riding, was struck
by an I. & C. car this morning in front of the City Restaurant, but both escaped injury except for a few cuts and bruises.

Mrs. Krammes was attempting to turn around and failed to see the car which was approaching from
the east, until it was almost upon the buggy. The horse became frightened and the buggy turned over.
The car pushed the buggy for a distance of several feet. When the buggy turned over the shafts dropped to the ground freeing the horse.
The little girl jumped from the rig,
but Mrs. Krammes remained in the buggy. She sustained a cut on the right arm, but otherwise was not hurt although she suffered from a nervous shock.

Cox's Shoe Store

All Men's and Women's Pumps and Oxfords, regular prices $4, $5, $6 and $7, for the next 10 days go at $2.95, $3.95, $4.95 and $5.45.

¶ This is a clean sweep of all the Low Shoes in our store, including not only lines in which the sizes are broken, but complete lines in all the newest lasts and Leathers. The most wanted models—the finest shoes in the store.

¶ We are overstocked on these goods because the weather upset normal purchasing. Folks do not buy low shoes till they need them. There were only 10 clear days in April and May—and scarcely more in June. This put us behind on our regular sales and we are going to sacrifice these goods without reservation—as it is the policy of this store never to carry goods from one season to another.

¶ This is your opportunity as most of the summer is still before you. We want to remind you again: This is Not an Ordinary Shoe Sale. Ordinary reductions mean little. These are standard values—shoes of known merit, of fixed prices—and this sale represents a striking and genuine economy. We stand back of every pair—They are the Best.

The same rate of Reduction goes for the LITTLE FOLKS. A few pair left of the old stock which is being offered at a ridiculously low price.

Sale Closes Saturday, July 21, 1917

Philectric Non-Glaring Automobile Headlight Lens

Combine nearly two hundred convex magnifying lenses into one. Instead of projecting a glaring, blinding beam, they divide the light into two hundred separate beams that merge into a flood of softly diffused light, brightly illuminating the road for hundreds of feet ahead and far on either side.

The remarkable feature of Philectric NON-GLARING LENS is that even with a 50-candle power nitrogen bulb there is no glare.

GERMAN ASSAULT FURIOUS

(By United Press.)

Paris, July 20.—German assault on the French line on the Lady's Highway reached unprecedented fury today in hand to hand fighting interspersed with cannonading and violent action, according to the press official report. Throughout the night the battle raged. The only German gain was over 2 1/2 of a mile front.

Attention Farmers

Grading wheat under U. S. Standards, a law which all grain dealers will have to abide by.

The official grain standards of the United States for wheat were fixed, established, promulgated and published on March 31 by the Secretary of Agriculture, under the authority given in the Grain Standard Act. This act of Congress establishes wheat grades for the entire United States, from the farm to the export terminal. Effective on Indiana wheat July 1, 1917.

Number Two Red Winter wheat shall be cool and sweet, contain not more than thirteen per cent of moisture, shall test not less than fifty-nine pounds per bushel, contain not more than four per cent of damaged kernels, and not more than one per cent of foreign matter.

Number Three Red Winter wheat shall be cool and sweet, contain not more than fourteen per cent moisture, shall have a test weight of at least fifty-seven pounds, shall contain not more than seven per cent of damaged kernels, and not more than two per cent of foreign matter.

Number Four Red Winter wheat shall be cool and sweet, contain not more than fourteen per cent moisture, shall have a test weight of at least fifty-five pounds. Shall contain not more than ten per cent damaged kernels, not more than one per cent heat damage, and not more than four per cent foreign matter.

Number Five Red Winter wheat may be musty or sour, contain not more than fifteen per cent of moisture, test not less than 53 pounds per bushel. May contain not more than fifteen per cent damaged kernels, not more than three per cent heat damage and not more than six per cent foreign material.

Dockage includes sand, dirt, weed seeds, weed stems, chaff, straw, grain other than wheat, and any other foreign material which can be removed readily from the wheat by the use of appropriate sieves cleaning devices, or other practical means suited to separate the foreign material present; also undeveloped, shriveled and small pieces of wheat kernels necessarily removed in properly separating the foreign material. The quantity of dockage shall be calculated in terms of percentage based on the total weight of the grain including the dockage. The percentage of dockage so calculated shall be stated in terms of whole per centum and half per centum. A fraction of a per centum when equal to, or greater than a half, shall be treated as a half, and when less than a half shall be disregarded. The percentage of dockage so determined and stated shall be added to the grade designation.

For a full copy of the Official Standards write to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., or to your Congressman. It will be seen that the requirements of grading are a trifle more strict. Dirty wheat, or wheat that is even slightly damp, cannot grade either number two or three in any market. It rests primarily with the farmer to see that the grain is threshed dry, and is properly cleaned. Dockage rules for dirty wheat are very explicit.

The only time to get rye out of wheat thoroughly is while the grain is standing. More than one per cent of rye prevents any wheat grading number two. One-tenth of one per cent makes it unfit for seed. Cockle is still worse and must be removed, if at all, before harvest.

How

does it come then that Knecht & Gartin have sold 223 cars this season?

Everybody Likes the Ford

Even the above named competitors have recently advertised for new and second-hand Fords all during this season, but you never did see them advertise for any of their own makes, for if they had got them they would still have them on their hands—the same as a lemon.

A Ford car is the same as a $20.00 gold piece — always good.

This was the experience of one man the other day—and

and he came here and traded it for a Ford, taking $90 less money than the Dodge cost him.

Some one outside of Rush county will find a bargain in this Dodge, as we do not care to sell this kind of a car to any of our prospective customers in our territory. Even the Stanley Auto Company have been attempting to secure the agency for the Buick (dropping the Maxwell, Dodge and Studebaker) for the season of 1918. This same firm has sold 83 Buicks in Henry county this season.

The Seriousness of War

The seriousness of the war is just dawning on Rush county. Never before was it brought home to the people like it was when closest and dearest friends and relatives were selected by the government as best fitted to serve the country on the battlefield.

Crowds collected on the streets. Little knots of women discussed the draft of the flower of the young manhood of Rush county. They talked with hushed voices. Awe and consternation were written on their faces. As the lists of the men selected for service were posted on the windows of business houses, they scanned them hastily. They anxiously watched for a son, possibly a brother; perhaps it was only a neighbor's son, but they felt as much grave concern as if he were their own son.

The very transition that is now taking place in the minds of people who up to this time have been thoughtless about the welfare of their country, is what those who have been trying to impress on the minds of all. War is not a pastime. It is a serious business. And the sooner all of us realize it, the better it will be for all concerned.

Furthermore, there are even more serious things to come. It will not be many months until lists will be posted again. They will not be names of men who have been conscripted. Instead it will be names of men who have given their lives for their country or, possibly have been seriously or mortally injured. There will be many burdens to bear, of which this is only the first.

It is being brought home to many today what the Red Cross means; what Red Cross workers were trying to explain when they made an aggressive canvass of the county for funds. The men who were able and gave nothing—should they have any conscience—will surely come to see it is their duty to help. The Red Cross can always use money. Company B. is raising a mess fund to give these volunteers some of the comforts of life which the government does not provide. These and other things are worthy. They should be supported. Let the persons who this day have had a new vision of the war come forward and do their share.

Makes America Efficient

Within three months a company at Brandenburg, Ky., expects to be able to supply the American demand for lithographic stone. Heretofore we had been receiving our supply from Bavaria, Germany, importing from $75,000 to $85,000 worth annually. But the war has thrown us on our own resources. Chemicals, minerals, fertilizers, etc., for which we formerly depended upon Germany we are now producing ourselves. We used to say, "Oh, they will be so much cheaper if we buy them from Germany instead of paying the extra expense of producing them at home," and so, like England in a great many instances, we began to rely on the power with which we are now at war.

But before we accepted Germany's challenge the war had become for us more than a protective tariff, it was a prohibitive tariff. Already we have taken up the manufacture of dyestuffs from coal-tar products. For years one interest fought another on the question of protection to dyestuffs made here, and in the compromise the home industry had to walk the plank. Two years after the German supply was shut off, Hill of Connecticut estimated that "if every penny of the specific duty which it is now proposed to add to the revenue rates of the present (1916) law should be added to the price to the consumer, it would take one hundred years of that burden to equal the losses which the existing famine has brought upon the country in the last twelve months."

We had depended upon Germany for our potash supply, and when that was cut off America went to work on the problem. An American expert estimates with a proper co-ordination of certain industries we can produce 2,000,000 tons annually of potash which can be sold to the American farmer for $15 per ton.

It has done us a lot of good to find out what we can accomplish when forced to do so. But what shall we do with these new industries after the war? Leave them to the tender mercies of a power as ruthless in trade as in warfare? Scrap them? Assuming, for the sake of argument, that the duty was added to the price, would it not be better to be independent and pay the advance? And is this not especially true in view of the post-war international combinations which are planned to control sources of supply, and to which the United States isn't a party?

A fruitful field for government censorship would be in the matter of the hypocritical peace talk that periodically emanates from German subsidized correspondents and is spread broadcast throughout this country. It is a smooth game Germany is playing. By creating a widespread impression that she stands ready to consummate peace at any time, she hopes to place this government in the attitude of obstructing peace. That the insidious virus is working is seen on all hands.

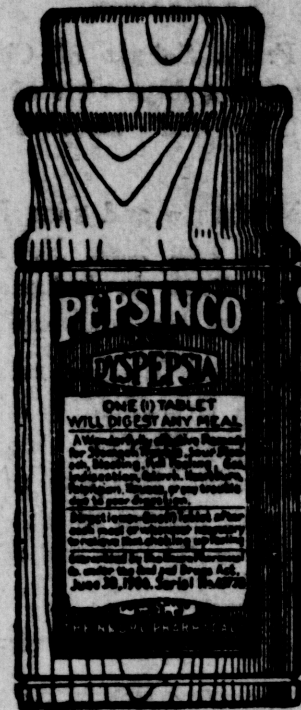

It can not be too strongly impressed upon our people that peace is the last thing Germany desires—that is, an equitable peace. Had she really desired such a peace she would have made some concrete proposals before this. Instead of so desiring, she hopes to spread dissension among her enemies that shall work to her advantage.

Congress could make no more commendable move than to establish a strict censorship of fake German peace proposals.

An unsophisticated writer advises us to cling to our good name, even though life itself is spent in the effort. We all want'em both.

Don't bother your head pouring over a French primer, young man. A kiss tastes just as sweet from a foreign tongue.

Smokers' Stomach Sweetened

ENGLAND LAYING IN COAL

Controller Urging People to Lay in Supplies

(By United Press.)

London, July 3 (By Mail).—Coal dealers are sincere about it this time in advising householders and owners of big buildings to stock up with coal for the winter. On July 31 the Coal Controller will take command of the supply and no more deliveries will be made, except under special permits, until a certain reserve for the London district has been accumulated. As the price of coal is controlled by the Government there is no reason why the dealers should hold their stores for a higher price.

Last winter's coal supply problem caused a hardship to thousands, both rich and poor. As the trouble was simply a matter of transportation, the same situation can be avoided this year by summer deliveries.

Break the Kaiser's Yoke?

"The Imperial Government is now on the defensive at home, and is compelled to deal in concrete fashion with the growing dissatisfaction of the German people," is a significant fact that stands out clearly and distinctly in the opinion of the New York World. Nevertheless, in the minds of other cautious American editors, we are warned not to expect too much from the crisis in Berlin, for Germany is not Russia, nor is Wilhelm a Nicholas.

The Boston News Bureau, however, perceives that whereas in the early days of the war, "all was vaunted political unanimity in the Fatherland," to-day, "the vast change in the military setting has its counterpart in the political transformation. Disillusion has brought dissension; confidence has given way to criticism; lines of faction are deeper than ever, over grave issues of war aims and war conduct." Vorwaerts, the German Socialist organ, in a warning to the German Government, remarks, "let none be blind to the fact that at this time a certain unrest is spreading throughout the nation."

In THE LITERARY DIGEST for July 21st, the leading article shows every angle of the significant developments that have been taking place in Berlin during the past few weeks, and the influence that they will exert upon the conduct of the war.

"The Digest" Stands Squarely for American Ideals

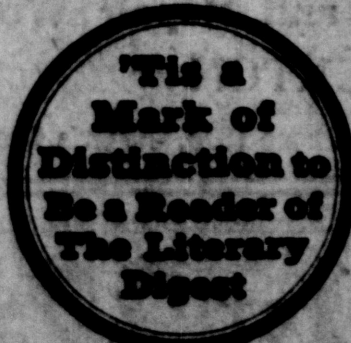

In these days of world-wide change and universal shattering of old traditions, when all existing systems of government are being tried as by fire and democracy finds itself everywhere at death-grip with absolutism in new and sinister forms, it behooves every true American to hold fast to the ideals upon which this Republic was founded, that he may still continue to enjoy "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

THE LITERARY DIGEST stands squarely for these great principles. It knows no party, no creed, no color. It fosters no racial antagonisms. It believes in impartial justice as between man and man and nation and nation. It is the organ of no class, but for all the people. It sets the facts before you without bias. It is essentially and fundamentally American.

OLD LADY
FEELING FINE

After Taking Four Bottles Of Cardui, The Woman's Tonic.

Cobden, Ill.—"Having used Cardui, the woman's tonic, in my family, for a number of years," writes Mrs. Kate Metcalf, of this town, "and always with such good results, I feel it my duty to write you about it, so that you may publish my letter."

My mother is living with me, and she is 62 years old. For the last three or four years, she has been troubled a great deal with cramping spells, and for days at a time, she would have a severe headache.

She read of how much Cardui has helped other women who were sick and ailing, and decided to give it a trial. She began taking it three times a day, and since then has been getting along simply fine.

Mother only used four bottles of Cardui, but she is no longer troubled with the severe headaches, and her stomach is so much stronger that she can eat most anything.

We both feel that any lady who is not strong and well, would be greatly benefited by the use of Cardui. Try Cardui-I. NCS

The uniforms are expected to arrive any time.

JUNK IS WORKED OVER IN EUROPE

Battlefield Scraps Are All Put Into Use Again and Little is Wasted

EVERYTHING IS COLLECTED

12,000 People Employed in One Factory Where Guns Are Made Over in France

By WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS (U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

With the British Armies in the Field, July 5. (By Mail)—Did you ever stop to think what becomes of all the worn-out equipment of an army composed of millions of men?

At the outset of the present war much of this was pure loss. Now in the British Army there is an "old clothes man" and the profits he reports back to his boss, John Bull, might make Morgan, Rockefeller or Carnegie envious.

The old clothes man "saves the scraps." He makes new things out of old. He cleans up the battlefields and camps and very little is wasted nowadays. His job is to collect everything from a horseshoe nail to a disordered seige-gun and put it back into commission.

Brass objects which have lost their usefulness are melted into ingots; cast iron junk into pig-iron again; bronze, tin, steel, nickel and everything of the kind which has irretrievably lost its shape is put into melting pots to be born again in another guise keeping up an eternal transmigration but serving all the while.

I recently visited one of these scrap-saving and repair shops. About 12,000 people are employed, mostly French women and girls.

Here great howitzers are repaired and government chronometers have their hair-springs re-adjusted; tents are patched and mended and covers are made for steel helmets; artillery wheels are repaired and micrometers put true again. There is a wood-working shop, a foundry for running brass, bronze, zinc, tin and iron; a boot repair department, a great machine shop; a gas mask repair department and many others.

In one room there were hundreds and hundreds of rifles.

"This is one day's arrivals," the commanding officer explained. "By tonight the room must be cleared to make room for tomorrow's arrivals."

Many of the rifles were muddy and rusty as though picked out of the mud on the battlefield. Women were cleaning these. In one corner a soldier was rhythmically swinging the rifles up one by one to a rest and squinting through the barrels at a light to see if they were bent or if the rifling was damaged. The officer explained this was obviously the first bit of inspection because it would be waste of time to repair other parts of the rifle if the barrel was damaged.

These rifles pass on down the line. When they reach the end they are as good as new and after being oiled are packed in boxes and shipped back to the front.

Amusements

The Princess will show Robert Harron and Mildred Harris in the feature drama, "The Bad Boy," for the first picture tonight. It is the story of a real American boy of today. In addition to this the comedy, "The Telephone Belle," will be shown. Monday, Carlyle Blackwell and June Eldridge will be seen in the drama, "The Social Leper."

The Gem offers Shorty Hamilton in the comedy, "Shorty Traps a Master Crook," for the first picture tonight. The second is also a comedy, "Be Sure Your Right." The last is a drama, "Stepping Westward." William Courtenay will be seen at the Gem Monday in the play entitled, "The Recoil," in which he is supported by Lillian Greuze, the famous star of the New York French theatre. The story is one dealing with the way in which the government expects secret service men to do their duty no matter how pressing their personal affairs may be.

SHAM DEMOCRACY
GEORGE'S REPLY

Britain's Premier This Afternoon
Answers Chancellor Michaelis'
Reichstag Speech

MUST WIPE OUT AUTOCRACY

If Not Done, He Says, Militarists
Will Again Plunge Europe Into Welter of Blood

(By United Press.)

London, July 21.—"Sham independence for Belgium; sham democracy for Germany; sham peace for Europe," was the bitter epitome of German Chancellor Michaelis' speech to the reichstag, spoken by Britain's Premier, David Lloyd George this afternoon.

In a ringing speech at the Belgian independence celebration at Queens Hall, the premier declared that unless German military autocracy is "wiped out they will again plunge Europe into a welter of blood."

"The chancellor's statement contained phrases which the German military authorities understood," he added. "Those in charge of Germany's affairs have elected for war. The junkers have thrown the old chancellor in the waste basket with his scrap of paper—and it will not be long before junkerdom follows."

"I am sorry to disagree with the German chancellor regarding German submarines, but gradually, surely we are increasing our protection and diminishing our losses. This year we are building four times as many ships as the past year. Next year we will build six times as many. "The food supply this year and next is already secured. Our program of cultivation makes the supply of 1917 secure even if our losses are increased."

"There is no hope for Belgium in the chancellor's statement. She is not even mentioned. It is the determination of the allies that Belgium be restored, free and independent; that her people be not under a protectorate."

Petrograd, July 21.—One hundred and six persons killed, and over 700 wounded, is the casualty list of Russia's second revolution, apparently ended today with the government in control.

Out of the violence and bloodshed has come a reorganization of free Russia. The government is now in the hands of the central committee of the workmen and soldiers committee.

Exposure of Nicholas Leneno, pacifist agitator, as a paid German agent, helped end the revolution.

Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout, Who Will Lecture at Chautauqua, Preminent in Illinois

A LEADER OF SUFFRAGISTS

Due to Her Efforts, Resolution For Constitutional Convention Is Passed by Legislature

Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout, president of the Illinois Equal Suffrage association, who will lecture at the chautauqua, which will be held the week of the fifth, is one of the most conspicuous figures in the political life of Illinois at present. Due largely to her efforts, the resolution calling for a Constitutional Convention has just passed the Illinois Legislature.

The organized suffragists of Illinois had recognized the almost insuperable difficulties in the way of securing full suffrage for women through an amendment to the present constitution, because the amending clause places such exacting restrictions upon the securing of amendments as to render practically impossible the carrying of a suffrage amendment at the required referendum. Consequently, at the Annual Convention held in Springfield in October, 1916, the Illinois State organization determined to try a new tack. Since that time the State Association has concentrated its efforts upon the passage of a Constitutional Convention Resolution through the Legislature.

The lobbying for the resolution was placed largely in the hands of the Suffrage Association. Mr. S. M. Singleton, secretary of the Citizens' Association, testifies as follows to the fine work done by the women's lobby.

"My dear Mrs. Trout: Mr. Cole and I desire to express to you our hearty thanks and those of the Citizen's Association for the splendidly effective manner in which you and the Illinois Equal Suffrage Association have lived up to the terms of the alliance which we formed to bring about the submission of the Constitutional Convention proposition.

"I have seldom seen such an exhibition of devotion to a distasteful duty as that shown by you and your associates in sticking to the disagreeable task of lobbying for the Convention Resolution day after day at Springfield for ten successive weeks. I am glad to bear witness that the Convention Resolution would not have been adopted had it not been for the tireless and tactful work of your woman's lobby. I am proud to have been associated with you in this great undertaking for the betterment of our State.

"Yours very truly,
(Signed) S. M. SINGLETON,
Secretary Citizens' Association.

Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout, to whose efforts the success of the State policy is largely due, has been a central figure in suffrage work for many years. First as president of the Chicago Political Equality League, and later as president for three successive terms of the Illinois Equal Suffrage Association, she played a large part in securing the passage of the suffrage bill in 1913 granting presidential and municipal suffrage to women.

In 1915 she retired from office for the purpose of taking up work upon the chautauqua platform. It is her firm conviction that the chautauqua is the greatest open forum and consequently the greatest field for propaganda work which exists in the United States today. Consequently she realized that, in order to advance the best interests of the suffrage cause, it was most desirable that suffragists should enter this field and take advantage of its opportunities. During 1916 she filled engagements for William Jennings Bryan and other noted chautauqua speakers all over the United States, and a marked career unfolded itself before her in this direction.

In the Fall of 1916, however, the urgent need of the suffrage cause in Illinois recalled Mrs. Trout from her new field to serve a four-year term as president of the Illinois E. S. A. She was elected in October 1916, and since that time the suffrage Association under new leadership has achieved signal victory

Mrs. E. C. Richison and son, left today for Detroit, Mich., where they will join Lient. Richison, and reside there until he receives orders to move to some other locality.

Edmund Gartin visited in Indianapolis on business today.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Iliff of New Salem visited here today enroute to Morristown.

FRESH SET OF MEN ON TRAIL

All Local Registration Boards Should
Get Official Lists by Thurs-
day or Friday

LAST NUMBER PULLED AT 2:18

Will be September 5 or Later Before
Sorting Out is Ac-
complished

By WEBB MILLER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, July 21.—With the location of the missing number today in the great draft lottery, Provost Marshal General Crowder notified Secretary of War Baker that the first step towards organizing America's army is complete.

The missing number—4,604—was assigned to the 10,004th place in the drawing—the point at which a blank had been picked from the urn.

Checking up has been completed and the official lists in printed and total draft form, will be on their way to all exemption boards before night fall.

It will be September 5, or later, before actual physical work of sorting out the new army is accomplished. As soon as this is done the government will summons 687,000 men to the colors to compose the new national army and to fill gaps in the regular army and national guard.

Letters of Secretary of War Baker to senators today indicated that the government does not propose to send either the national guard or new army abroad before spring; although original plans contemplated sending them before snow flies.

Washington, July 21.—America's mighty draft closed here today with one number missing. Today a force of clerks went through the dizzy list of figures on the hunt for this missing numeral.

It was the single hitch of a perfect day which started at 9:30 a. m. yesterday and ended with the pulling of the last capsule at 2:18 this morning.

Tired men with blistered fingers and head whirling with figures were ordered off today for three hours while a fresh crew of accountants went on the trail of the missing number.

The missing pellet was a blank.

The 10,004th number was where it came out.

If the missing number is located during the day and the checking is complete the local registration boards should get their official lists on next Thursday or Friday at the latest.

Then the work of selecting the fit and the unexempted will proceed.

The first call of men consists of 200 per cent of the actual quota of the particular district or town.

GOETHALS OFFERS TO RESIGN

Washington, July 21.—Gen. Goethals has offered to resign as general manager of the emergency fleet corporation. As a climax to the long drawn argument between himself and Chairman Denman of the shipping board, Goethals wrote a letter to President Wilson suggesting that if it will help matters he will resign.

CONTINUE MASS ATTACKS

London, July 21.—Germans last night continued their mass attack against the French line along the Lady's Highway. The Paris official statement reported futile assaults by enemy in this region, and their repulse with heavy losses to the Teutons.

The list given below includes the names of 386 Rush county men of military age in the order their ink serial numbers were drawn at Washington. Today's list varies somewhat from that printed yesterday because of errors in transmission over the wires. The list is as correct as is possible to make it for the present because it was double checked with lists printed in the Indianapolis Star, Indianapolis News and Indianapolis Times. The names are given in groups of ten for the convenience of those who wish to find the order of their appearance before the board. The number in black face type is the number of the name just above it. The list following includes the Rush county men in the first 3,000 of the 10,500 numbers drawn in Washington and is expected to be far more than enough to provide Rush county's allotment for the first draft:

RUSHVILLE BOY IS SERVING HIS COUNTRY WITH ARMY IN FRANCE

MESS FUND GOAL IS PUT AT $1,500

Committee in Charge Hopes to Raise
This Much by July 29 When Flag
Is Presented

Pointed out That Money Will Remain
In Local Banks Subject to Check
While in U. S.

In order that the people will better understand the proposed mess fund to be raised for Company B. and to keep the committee from having to explain it to everyone while collecting the money, an explanation of the workings of the fund was made today.

First the money is deposited in local banks to the credit of the company, remaining subject to check as long as the troops are in the United States. In this way the members of the company do not ever handle any of the actual money.

The expenditure of the money is then determined by council. The council is composed of one regimental officer; two company officers and two enlisted men. This council also audits the books and a strict accounting of the funds is made at all times.

The use of the fund has been explained. It is to purchase the little things that add pleasure and enjoyment to the soldiers' life that the government does not furnish. For instance, the government does not furnish pickles, butter, fresh vegetables and many other things. The fund is also to furnish the men amusement such as club equipment, music, reading matter and books. No commissioned officer can share in the fund and it is strictly for the men whose pay is not sufficient to warrant him spending money for these things.

It was pointed out that the members of Company B. have given everything by their action in enlisting and as a result many eligibles caught in the draft will stay at home. For this reason an appeal is made to every citizen to give to the fund.

The amount of the fund has been placed at $1,500 and it is the hopes of the committee that this fund can be completed by next Sunday, July 29 and along with the flag be presented to the company in the form of a certificate of deposit for this amount.

The committee in charge of the raising of the fund will meet Monday afternoon at two o'clock in the office of Samuel L. Trabue. All members of the original committee are requested to attend the meeting. At this time it is likely that additional members will be appointed for the other townships.

EXPECTS TO SET A RECORD

W. A. Alexander Threshing Wheat
Today That Averages 35 to Acre

William A. Alexander, west of Rushville, was threshing some wheat today that was expected to set a new record for the county in recent years. The first 300 bushels averaged thirty-five bushels to the acre. It tested sixty-one pounds to the bushel and will likely make No. 2 wheat. The first yield reported this year was thirteen bushels to the acre, but it was not thought that indicated anywhere near what the average yield would be.

Epistle is Mailed From Paris and

Was Thought to be in France Al-
though Relatives Did Not
Know it Until Today

Direct word from one Rushville boy with General Pershing's forces in France was received this morning in the form of a letter to Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cox, 613 West Ninth street, from their son, Elbert Cox.

Young Cox is a member of the Eighteenth Infantry, Company K and while his parents believed he was in France, this was the first word received from him that he is actually there. He enlisted in the regular army last March at the Indianapolis recruiting office. Mr. Cox is well known here. He formerly worked at the J. D. Case mill.

The letter was mailed from Paris. There is no date line and only the barest of facts were permitted to be told. Young Cox exercised his privilege as a soldier and sent the letter collect; that is, mailed it in Paris without a stamp and the postage was paid in Rushville. The official stamp of the censor is contained in one corner of the envelope and the letter was sent unsealed.

It is as follows.
Paris, France,
18th Infantry, Co. K

Dear Father and Mother—

I will write you a line to let you know that I am all O. K. and hope you are the same.

Well, father and mother, I am in France now but I cannot tell you anything that is important, but you must write me and tell all the rest to write, for you can write me anything. Just address the letter, 18th Infantry, Co. K, France and I will get it.

So goodbye,
Your son,
ELBERT COX.

BUGGY HIT BY CAR OCCUPANTS UNHURT

Mrs. George Krammes and Flora
Belle Gilson Have Narrow Es-
cape in Third Street

RIG PUSHED SEVERAL FEET

A buggy in which Mrs. George Krammes, living southwest of the city and Flora Belle Gilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gilson of this city were riding, was struck by an I. & C. car this morning in front of the City Restaurant, but both escaped injury except for a few cuts and bruises.

Mrs. Krammes was attempting to turn around and failed to see the car which was approaching from the east, until it was almost upon the buggy. The horse became frightened and the buggy turned over. The car pushed the buggy for a distance of several feet. When the buggy turned over the shafts dropped to the ground freeing the horse. The little girl jumped from the rig, but Mrs. Krammes remained in the buggy. She sustained a cut on the right arm, but otherwise was not hurt although she suffered from a nervous shock.

Cox's Shoe Store

All Men's and Women's Pumps and Oxfords, regular prices $4, $5, $6 and $7, for the next 10 days go at $2.95, $3.95, $4.95 and $5.45.

¶ This is a clean sweep of all the Low Shoes in our store, including not only lines in which the sizes are broken, but complete lines in all the newest lasts and Leathers. The most wanted models—the finest shoes in the store.

¶ We are overstocked on these goods because the weather upset normal purchasing. Folks do not buy low shoes till they need them. There were only 10 clear days in April and May—and scarcely more in June. This put us behind on our regular sales and we are going to sacrifice these goods without reservation—as it is the policy of this store never to carry goods from one season to another.

¶ This is your opportunity as most of the summer is still before you. We want to remind you again: This is Not an Ordinary Shoe Sale. Ordinary reductions mean little. These are standard values—shoes of known merit, of fixed prices—and this sale represents a striking and genuine economy. We stand back of every pair—They are the Best.

The same rate of Reduction goes for the LITTLE FOLKS. A few pair left of the old stock which is being offered at a ridiculously low price.

Sale Closes Saturday, July 21, 1917

Philetric Non-Blaring Automobile Headlight Lens

Combine nearly two hundred convex magnifying lenses into one. Instead of projecting a glaring, blinding beam, they divide the light into two hundred separate beams that merge into a flood of softly diffused light, brightly illuminating the road for hundreds of feet ahead and far on either side.

The remarkable feature of Philetric NON-GLARING LENS is that even with a 50-candle power nitrogen bulb there is no glare.

(By United Press.)

Paris, July 20.—German assault on the French line on the Lady's Highway reached unprecedented fury today in hand to hand fighting interspersed with cannonading and violent action, according to the press official report. Attention Farmers

Grading wheat under U. S. Standards, a law which all grain dealers will have to abide by.

The official grain standards of the United States for wheat were fixed, established, promulgated and published on March 31 by the Secretary of Agriculture, under the authority given in the Grain Standard Act. This act of Congress establishes wheat grades for the entire United States, from the farm to the export terminal. Effective on Indiana wheat July 1, 1917.

Number Two Red Winter wheat shall be cool and sweet, contain not more than thirteen per cent of moisture, shall test not less than fifty-nine pounds per bushel, contain not more than four per cent of damaged kernels, and not more than one per cent of foreign matter.

Number Three Red Winter wheat shall be cool and sweet, contain not more than fourteen per cent moisture, shall have a test weight of at least fifty-seven pounds, shall contain not more than seven per cent of damaged kernels, and not more than two per cent of foreign matter.

Number Four Red Winter wheat shall be cool and sweet, contain not more than fourteen per cent moisture, shall have a test weight of at least fifty-five pounds. Shall contain not more than ten per cent damaged kernels, not more than one per cent heat damage, and not more than four per cent foreign matter.

Number Five Red Winter wheat may be musty or sour, contain not more than fifteen per cent of moisture, test not less than 53 pounds per bushel. May contain not more than fifteen per cent damaged kernels, not more than three per cent heat damage and not more than six per cent foreign material.

Dockage includes sand, dirt, weed seeds, weed stems, chaff, straw, grain other than wheat, and any other foreign material which can be removed readily from the wheat by the use of appropriate sieves cleaning devices, or other practical means suited to separate the foreign material present; also undeveloped, shriveled and small pieces of wheat kernels necessarily removed in properly separating the foreign material. The quantity of dockage shall be calculated in terms of percentage based on the total weight of the grain including the dockage. The percentage of dockage so calculated shall be stated in terms of whole per centum and half per centum. A fraction of a per centum when equal to, or greater than a half, shall be treated as a half, and when less than a half shall be disregarded. The percentage of dockage so determined and stated, shall be added to the grade designation.

For a full copy of the Official Standards, write to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., or to your Congressman. It will be given that the requirements of grading are a trifle more strict. Dirty wheat, or wheat that is even slightly damp, cannot grade either number two or three in any market. It rests primarily with the farmer to see that the grain is threshed dry, and is properly cleaned. Dockage rules for dirty wheat are very explicit.

The only time to get rye out of wheat thoroughly is while the grain is standing. More than one per cent of rye prevents any wheat grading number two. One-tenth of one per cent makes it unfit for seed. Cocks is still worse and must be removed, if at all, before harvest.

Stanley Sells the Cars

How

does it come then that Knecht & Gartin have sold 223 cars this season?

Everybody Likes the Ford

Even the above named competitors have recently advertised for new and second-hand Fords all during this season, but you never did see them advertise for any of their own makes, for if they had got them they would still have them on their hands—the same as a lemon.

A Ford car is the same as a $20.00 gold piece — always good.

$45.00 a Day to Operate a Dodge

This was the experience of one man the other day — and

Two Days was Enough

and he came here and traded it for a Ford, taking $90 less money than the Dodge cost him.

Some one outside of Rush county will find a bargain in this Dodge, as we do not care to sell this kind of a car to any of our prospective customers in our territory. Even the Stanley Auto Company have been attempting to secure the agency for the Buick (dropping the Maxwell, Dodge and Studebaker) for the season of 1918. This same firm has sold 83 Buicks in Henry county this season.

The Seriousness of War

The seriousness of the war is just dawning on Rush county. Never before was it brought home to the people like it was when closest and dearest friends and relatives were selected by the government as best fitted to serve the country on the battlefield.

Crowds collected on the streets. Little knots of women discussed the draft of the flower of the young manhood of Rush county. They talked with hushed voices. Awe and consternation were written on their faces. As the lists of the men selected for service were posted on the windows of business houses, they scanned them hastily. They anxiously watched for a son, possibly a brother; perhaps it was only a neighbor's son, but they felt as much grave concern as if he were their own son.

The very transition that is now taking place in the minds of people who up to this time have been thoughtless about the welfare of their country, is what those who have been trying to impress on the minds of all. War is not a pastime. It is a serious business. And the sooner all of us realize it, the better it will be for all concerned.

Furthermore, there are even more serious things to come. It will not be many months until lists will be posted again. They will not be names of men who have been conscripted. Instead it will be names of men who have given their lives for their country or, possibly have been seriously or mortally injured. There will be many burdens to bear, of which this is only the first.

It is being brought home to many today what the Red Cross means; what Red Cross workers were trying to explain when they made an aggressive canvass of the county for funds. The men who were able and gave nothing—should they have any conscience—will surely come to see it is their duty to help. The Red Cross can always use money. Company B. is raising a mess fund to give these volunteers some of the comforts of life which the government does not provide. These and other things are worthy. They should be supported. Let the persons who this day have had a new vision of the war come forward and do their share.

Within three months a company at Brandenburg, Ky., expects to be able to supply the American demand for lithographic stone. Heretofore we had been receiving our supply from Bavaria, Germany, importing from $75,000 to $85,000 worth annually. But the war has thrown us on our own resources. Chemicals, minerals, fertilizers, etc., for which we formerly depended upon Germany we are now producing ourselves. We used to say, "Oh, they will be so much cheaper if we buy them from Germany instead of paying the extra expense of producing them at home," and so, like England in a great many instances, we began to rely on the power with which we are now at war.

But before we accepted Germany's challenge the war had become for us more than a protective tariff, it was a prohibitive tariff. Already we have taken up the manufacture of dyestuffs from coal-tar products. For years one interest fought another on the question of protection to dyestuffs made here, and in the compromise the home industry had to walk the plank. Two years after the German supply was shut off, Hill of Connecticut estimated that "if every penny of the specific duty which it is now proposed to add to the revenue rates of the present (1916) law should be added to the price to the consumer, it would take one hundred years of that burden to equal the losses which the existing famine has brought upon the country in the last twelve months."

We had depended upon Germany for our potash supply, and when that was cut off America went to work on the problem. An American expert estimates with a proper coordination of certain industries we can produce 2,000,000 tons annually of potash which can be sold to the American farmer for $15 per ton.

It has done us a lot of good to find out what we can accomplish when forced to do so. But what shall we do with these new industries after the war? Leave them to the tender mercies of a power as ruthless in trade as in warfare? Scrap them? Assuming, for the sake of argument, that the duty was added to the price, would it not be better to be independent and pay the advance? And is this not especially true in view of the post-war international combinations which are planned to control sources of supply, and to which the United States isn't a party?

A fruitful field for government censorship would be in the matter of the hypocritical peace talk that periodically emanates from German subsidized correspondents and is spread broadcast throughout this country. It is a smooth game Germany is playing. By creating a widespread impression that she stands ready to consummate peace at any time, she hopes to place this government in the attitude of obstructing peace. That the insidious virus is working is seen on all hands.

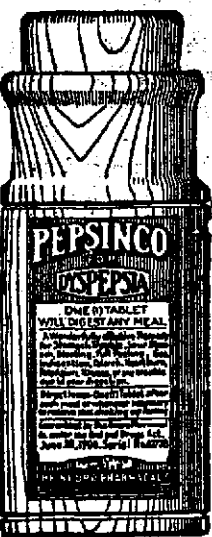

It can not be too strongly impressed upon our people that peace is the last thing Germany desires—that is, an equitable peace. Had she really desired such a peace she would have made some concrete proposals before this. Instead of so desiring, she hopes to spread dissension among her enemies that shall work to her advantage.

Congress could make no more commendable move than to establish a strict censorship of fake German peace proposals.

An unsophisticated writer advises us to cling to our good name, even though life itself is spent in the effort. We all want'em both.

Don't bother your head pouring over a French primer, young man. A kiss tastes just as sweet from a foreign tongue.

Smokers' Stomach Sweetened

Emptiness and hollowness and gassy state of the stomach after smoking, bad taste in the mouth, belching of wind. If they are not dyspepsia, they will bring on dyspepsia. Hundreds of smokers use Pepsinco because they know it prevents that bad feeling that many smokers detest and which is evidence of an off stomach.

A ten cent package will prove the value of Pepsinco for the smoker.

Controller Urging People to Lay in Supplies

(By United Press.)

London, July 3 (By Mail)—Coal
dealers are sincere about it. this time in advising householders and owners of big buildings to stock up with coal for the winter. On July 31 the Coal Controller will take command of the supply and no more deliveries will be made, except under special permits, until a certain reserve for the London district has been accumulated. As the price of coal is controlled by the Government
there is no reason why the dealers
should hold their stores for a higher price.

Last winter's coal supply problem
caused a hardship to thousands,
both rich and poor. As the trouble
was simply a matter of transportation, the same situation can be avoided this year by summer deliveries.

Will the German Upheaval
Break the Kaiser's Yoke?

"The Imperial Government is now on the defensive at home, and is compelled to deal in concrete fashion with the growing dissatisfaction of the German people," is a significant fact that stands out clearly and distinctly in the opinion of the New York World. Nevertheless, in the minds of other cautious American editors, we are warned not to expect too much from the crisis in Berlin, for Germany is not Russia, nor is Wilhelm a Nicholas.

The Boston News Bureau, however, perceives that whereas in the early days of the war, "all was vaunted political unanimity in the Fatherland," to-day, "the vast change in the military setting has its counterpart in the political transformation. Disillusion has brought dissension; confidence has given way to criticism; lines of faction are deeper than ever, over grave issues of war aims and war conduct." Vorwaerts, the German Socialist organ, in a warning to the German Government, remarks, "let none be blind to the fact that at this time a certain unrest is spreading throughout the nation."

In THE LITERARY DIGEST for July 21st, the leading article shows every angle of the significant developments that have been taking place in Berlin during the past few weeks, and the influence that they will exert upon the conduct of the war.

"The Digest" Stands Squarely for American Ideals

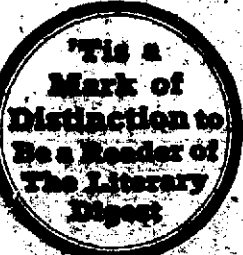

In these days of world-wide change and universal shattering of old traditions, when all existing systems
of government are being tried as by fire and democracy finds itself everywhere at death-grip with absolutism in new and sinister forms, it behooves every true American to hold fast to the ideals upon which
this Republic was founded, that he may still continue
to enjoy "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

THE LITERARY DIGEST stands squarely for these great principles. It knows no party, no creed, no color. It fosters no racial antagonisms. It believes in impartial justice as between man and man and nation and nation. It is the organ of no class, but for all the people. It sets the facts before you without bias. It is essentially and fundamentally American.

Cobden, Ill.—"Having used Cardui,
the woman's tonic, in my family, for a number of years," writes Mrs. Kate Mets, of this town, "and always with such good results, I feel it my duty to write you about it, so that you may publish my letter."

My mother is living with me, and she is 62 years old. For the last three or four years, she has been troubled with cramping spells, and for days at a time, she would have a severe headache.

She read of how much Cardui had helped other women who were sick
and ailing, and decided to give it a trial. She began taking it three times
a day, and since then has been getting along simply fine.

Mother only used four bottles of Cardui, but she is no longer troubled
with the severe headaches, and her stomach is so much stronger that she can eat most anything.

We both feel that any lady who is not strong and well, would be greatly benefited by the use of Cardui.

Mrs. Knowles Casady will be hostess to the club in two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Amos entertained with a well appointed dinner to day, at their country home, east of this city. A pretty french basket of flowers adorned the center of the table and covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Conaway, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Amos and daughter Mary, Mr. and Mrs. William Dagler, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Strong of Indianapolis and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Powell.

More Men For Company B. Appear For Physical Tests

Lieut. Nusbaum was here this afternoon for the purpose of conducting medical examinations for company B. The company had several men to be examined and it was likely that several of the men drawn in the draft yesterday would enlist. Until these men are actually called they can enlist in Company B, according to the officers. The first of the company equipment arrived this morning. Capt. Kiplinger received a camp table. The uniforms are expected to arrive any time.

JUNK IS WORKED OVER IN EUROPE

Battlefield Scraps Are All Put Into Use Again and Little is Wasted

EVERYTHING IS COLLECTED

12,000 People Employed in One Factory Where Guns Are Made Over in France

By WILLIAM PHILIP STEWART
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

With the British Armies in the field, July 5. (By Mail)—Did you ever stop to think what becomes of all the worn-out equipment of an army composed of millions of men?

At the outset of the present war much of this was pure loss. Now in the British Army there is an "old clothes man" and the profits he reports back to his boss, John Bull, might make Morgan, Rockefeller or Carnegie envious.

The old clothes man "saves the scraps." He makes new things out of old. He cleans up the battlefields and camps and very little is wasted nowadays. His job is to collect everything from a horseshoe nail to a disordered seige-gun and put it back into commission.

Brass objects which have lost their usefulness are melted into ingots; cast iron junk into pig-iron again; bronze, tin, steel, nickel and everything of the kind which has irretrievably lost its shape is put into melting pots to be born again in another guise keeping up an eternal transmigration but serving all the while.

I recently visited one of these scrap-saving and repair shops. About 12,000 people are employed, mostly French women and girls.

Here great howitzers are repaired and government chronometers have their hair-springs re-adjusted; tents are patched and mended and covers are made for steel helmets; artillery wheels are repaired and micrometers put true again. There is a wood-working shop, a foundry for running brass, bronze, zinc, tin and iron; a boot repair department, a great machine shop; a gas mask repair department and many others. In one room there were hundreds and hundreds of rifles.

"This is one day's arrivals," the commanding officer explained. "By tonight the room must be cleared to make room for tomorrow's arrivals."

Many of the rifles were muddy and rusty as though picked out of the mud on the battlefield. Women were cleaning these. In one corner a soldier was rhythmically swinging the rifles up one by one to a rest and squinting through the barrels at a light to see if they were bent or if the rifling was damaged. The officer explained this was obviously the first bit of inspection because it would be waste of time to repair other parts of the rifle if the barrel was damaged.

These rifles pass on down the line. When they reach the end they are as good as new and after being oiled are packed in boxes and shipped back to the front.

MAKES SHIRTS FOR SOLDIERS

Crawfordsville, Ind., July 21.—Seven hundred women of this city are now making shirts for soldiers, according to statistics announced by C. W. Coons, secretary of the Community association.

Amusements

The Princess will show Robert Harron and Mildred Harris in the feature drama, "The Bad Boy," for the first picture tonight. It is the story of a real American boy of today. In addition to this the comedy, "The Telephone Belle," will be shown. Monday, Carlyle Blackwell and June Eldridge will be seen in the drama, "The Social Leper."

The Gem offers Shorty Hamilton in the comedy, "Shorty Traps a Master Crook," for the first picture tonight. The second is also a comedy, "Be Sure Your Right." The last is a drama, "Stepping Westward." William Courtenay will be seen at the Gem Monday in the play entitled, "The Recoil," in which he is supported by Lillian Greuze, the famous star of the New York French theatre. The story is one dealing with the way in which the government expects secret service men to do their duty no matter how pressing their personal affairs may be.

SHAM DEMOCRACY JULY WHEAT UP FIVE; GEORGE'S REPLY HOGS ARE UP 25 CENTS

Britain's Premier This Afternoon Answers Chancellor Michaelis' Reichstag Speech

MUST WIPE OUT AUTOCRACY

If Not Done, He Says, Militarists Will Again Plunge Europe Into Welter of Blood

(By United Press.)

London, July 21.—"Sham independence for Belgium; sham democracy for Germany; sham peace for Europe," was the bitter epitome of German Chancellor Michaelis' speech to the reichstag, spoken by Britain's Premier, David Lloyd George this afternoon.

In a ringing speech at the Belgian independence celebration at Queens Hall, the premier declared that unless German military autocracy is, "wiped out they will again plunge Europe into a welter of blood."

"The chancellor's statement contained phrases which the German military authorities understood," he added. "Those in charge of Germany's affairs have elected for war. The junkers have thrown the old chancellor in the waste basket with his scrap of paper—and it will not be long before junkerdom follows."

"I am sorry to disagree with the German chancellor regarding German submarines, but gradually, surely we are increasing our protection and diminishing our losses. This year we are building four times as many ships as the past year. Next year we will build six times as many. "The food supply this year and next is already secured. Our program of cultivation makes the supply of 1917 secure even if our losses are increased."

"There is no hope for Belgium in the chancellor's statement. She is not even mentioned. It is the determination of the allies that Belgium be restored, free and independent; that her people be not under a protectorate."

106 ARE KILLED IN SECOND REVOLUTION

Out of Violence and Bloodshed in Petrograd Has Come Reorganization of Free Russia

GERMAN AGENT IS EXPOSED

By WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD (U. P. Staff Correspondent.) Petrograd, July 21.—One hundred and six persons killed, and over 700 wounded, is the casualty list of Russia's second revolution, apparently ended today with the government in control.

Out of the violence and bloodshed has come a reorganization of free Russia. The government is now in the hands of the central committee of the workmen and soldiers' committee.

Exposure of Nicholas Leneno, pacifist agitator, as a paid German agent, helped end the revolution.

KERENSKY NEW PREMIER

London, July 21.—Minister of war Kersensky has temporarily been named premier of Russia, succeeding Prince Lvoff, resigned, according to announcement of Petrograd today. Kerensky, it was stated, was to receive his place as military and naval chief.

(By United Press.)

Putnamville, Ind., July 21.—In a sensational gun fight with four inmates of the state penal farm here, who attempted to escape from the institution today, prison guards shot and killed one negro prisoner and seriously wounded another. Two white prisoners who were with the negro in the dash for liberty escaped but were recaptured. The negro killed was named Hall. He was sentenced from Lake county.

MINIMUM WHEAT PRICE $2.

Washington, July 21.—A minimum price of $2 a bushel on highest grades of wheat was fixed by the senate today when it approved without roll call an amendment to the food bill offered by Senator Chamberlain fixing this minimum price.

July wheat prices went up five cents in Chicago today and September was nine and a quarter higher. Corn and oats prices were steady to lower.

Indianapolis hog prices were 25 cents higher with receipts 2,100 under yesterday's.

Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout, Who Will Lecture at Chautauqua, Preminent in Illinois

A LEADER OF SUFFRAGISTS

Due to Her Efforts, Resolution For Constitutional Convention Is Passed by Legislature

Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout, president of the Illinois Equal Suffrage association, who will lecture at the chautauqua, which will be held the week of the fifth, is one of the most conspicuous figures in the political life of Illinois at present. Due largely to her efforts, the resolution calling for a Constitutional Convention has just passed the Illinois Legislature.

The organized suffragists of Illinois had recognized the almost insuperable difficulties in the way of securing full suffrage for women
through an amendment to the present constitution, because the amending clause places such exacting restrictions upon the securing of amendments as to render practically impossible the carrying of a
suffrage amendment at the required
referendum. Consequently, at the Annual Convention held in Springfield in October, 1916, the Illinois State organization determined to try a new tack. Since that time the State Association has concentrated
its efforts upon the passage of a Constitutional Convention Resolution through the Legislature.

The lobbying for the resolution
was placed largely in the hands of the Suffrage Association. Mr. S. M.
Singleton, secretary of the Citizens' Association, testifies as follows to the fine work done by the women's lobby.

"My dear Mrs. Trout: Mr. Cole
and I desire to express to you our heartly thanks and those of the Citizens' Association for the splendently effective manner in which you and the Illinois Equal Suffrage Association have lived up to the terms
of the alliance which we formed to bring about the submission of the Constitutional Convention proposition.

"I have seldom seen such an exhibition of devotion to a distasteful
duty as that shown by you and your associates in sticking to the disagreeable task of lobbying for
the Convention Resolution day after day at Springfield for ten successive weeks. I am glad to bear
witness that the Convention Resolution would not have been adopted
had it not been for the tireless and
tactful work of your woman's lobby.
I am proud to have been associated with you in this great undertaking
for the betterment of our State.

"Yours very truly,
(Signed) S. M. SINGLETON,
Secretary Citizens' Association.

Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout, to whose efforts the success of the State policy is largely due, has been
a central figure in suffrage work
for many years. First as president of the Chicago Political Equality League, and later as president for three successive terms of the Illinois Equal Suffrage Association, she played a large part in securing the passage of the suffrage bill in 1913
granting presidential and municipal suffrage to women.

In 1915 she retired from office for the purpose of taking up work upon the chautauqua platform. It is her firm conviction that the chautauqua
is the greatest open forum and consequently the greatest field for propaganda work which exists in the United States today. Consequently
she realized that, in order to advance the best interests of the suffrage cause, it was most desirable
that suffragists should enter this field and take advantage of its opportunities. During 1916 she filled engagements for William Jennings Bryan and other noted chautauqua
speakers all over the United States,
and a marked career unfolded itself
before her in this direction.

In the Fall of 1916, however, the urgent need of the suffrage cause in Illinois recalled Mrs. Trout from her new field to serve a four-year
term as president of the Illinois E.
S. A. She was elected in October 1916, and since that time the suffrage Association under new leadership has achieved a great victory.
